DESIST AND REFRAIN ORDER

13 14

(For violations of sections 25110 and 25210, 25401 of the Corporations Code)

15 16

The California Corporations Commissioner finds that:

18 19

17

1. At all relevant times, Donald F. Neuhaus was a principal, partner, or owner of American Financial Services, Inc., and Cash for Life, operating in California.

20 21

2. At all relevant times, American Financial Services, Inc., a company, form unknown, was operating in California.

23

22

3. At all relevant times, Cash for Life, a company, form unknown, was operating in California.

2526

Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life offered or sold securities in the form of viaticals, otherwise defined as "viatical settlement contract or fractionalized or pooled interest therein;

Beginning no more than four years ago, Donald F. Neuhaus, American life settlement contract or a fractionalized or pooled interest therein," to California residents.

- 5. Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life solicited potential investors through direct mailings and through contacts developed in conjunction with insurance or other business interests. Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life promised investors guaranteed returns anywhere from 16% to 31% for investments ranging from 1 to 4 year terms. Several investors were promised returns up to or even exceeding 100%.
- 6. The Department of Corporations has not issued a permit or other form of qualification authorizing Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. or Cash for Life to offer or sell the viatical investments in this state. The viatical investments offered and sold by Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life are not exempt from the qualification requirement under Section 25110 of the California Corporate Securities Law of 1968.
- 7. The viatical investments offered and sold by Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life fail to meet the exemption from qualification of securities under Corporations Code §25102(q), without limitation, as follows:
- a. Failure to comply with §25102(q)(1) in that investors were not qualified purchasers and did not meet the provisions of that section;
- b. Failure to comply with §25102(q)(3) by failing to provide the required disclosures and other information;
- 8. In addition, Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life made material misrepresentations or omissions of material facts in conjunction with the offer and sale of viatical investments, including, but not limited to, the following:
- a. That the investor was purchasing "a life insurance policy, or policies," when, in fact, the investor was purchasing a fractionalized interest in the death benefit of a life insurance policy;
- b. That the investment was backed by a "Financial Guarantee Bond" and not disclosing any details about the bonding company;

- c. That the "absolute yield-per-year is disclosed from inception" when, in fact, it is not.
- d. That "in no case" will the payout be more than 6 months past the defined "maturity date."
- e. Failing to clearly disclose that the investment will potentially be illiquid far longer than the designated period, thereby reducing the potential rate of return;
- f. Failing to disclose that the viatical investment was a security under California law;
- g. Failing to disclose that the issuers were required to be licensed brokerdealers, but were not;
- h. Failing to disclose that the sales agents were required to hold a valid securities sales license issued by the National Association of Securities Dealers, but did not;
- 9. None of the above parties, Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life, have obtained a certificate as a broker-dealer from the California Corporations Commissioner or have qualified as an agent by the Commissioner to offer or sell securities in this state.
- 10. Based upon the foregoing findings, the California Corporations Commissioner is of the opinion that the viatical investment offered and/or sold by Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life is a security subject to qualification under the California Corporate Securities Law of 1968 and is being or has been offered or sold without being qualified in violation of Corporations Code §25110.
- 11. The California Corporations Commissioner is of the further opinion that the securities offered and/or sold by Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life were offered and/or sold based upon material misrepresentations or omissions of material facts in violation of Corporations Code §25401.
- 12. Pursuant to Section 25532 of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life are hereby ordered to desist and refrain from the further offer or sale in the State of California of securities in the form of viatical investments, unless and until qualification has been made under said law or unless exempt.

- Absent qualification or exemption in the offer or sale of securities, Donald F. 13. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life have also effected transactions in securities as broker-dealers without first having applied for and secured from the Commissioner a certificate, then in effect, authorizing these persons to act in that capacity, in violation of §25210 of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968.
- 14. Pursuant to Section 25532 of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, Donald F. Neuhaus, American Financial Services, Inc. and Cash for Life are hereby ordered to desist and refrain from effecting any transaction in, or inducing or attempting to induce the purchase or sale of any security in this state, unless and until they have applied for and secured from the Commissioner a certificate, then in effect, authorizing these persons to act in that capacity.

This Order is necessary, in the public interest, for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes, policies, and provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968.
